

QUICK GUIDE TO ESSER I & ESSER II FUNDS

The Telehealth Provider for Florida Schools

Did you know ESSER funds can be used to implement a telehealth therapy program at your school?

Contact your state educational agency today!

QUICK FACTS

AVAILABLE FUNDING

ESSER I $13,229,265,000
ESSER II $54,311,004,000

ALLOCATION BY STATE

ESSER I LIST
ESSER II LIST

COVERED COST

Costs accrued since
March 13, 2020

ALLOWABLE EXPENSES

- Uses authorized under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act
- Mental health services
- COVID-19 preparedness, cleaning supplies, improving indoor air quality
- Resources to school leaders to address school needs
- Address needs of historically marginalized and vulnerable populations
- Improving general preparedness and response efforts;
- Coordinating long-term closure (e.g., remote learning, providing meals)
- Training on sanitation and minimizing disease spread;
- Education technology for students
- Summer learning and after-school programming;
- Discretionary money for principals to address student needs
- Other activities to maintain operations and to continue employing staff
- Addressing learning loss among students, including by using high-quality, valid, and reliable assessments
- Facility repairs/improvement to reduce risk of virus transmission

DEADLINE TO OBLIGATE FUNDING

- ESSER I - September 30, 2022
- ESSER II - September 30, 2023

CAN PRIVATE SCHOOLS APPLY?

Private schools can apply for ESSER I funding. Under ESSER II, private schools will be able to apply for the Emergency Assistance to Non-Public Schools (EANS) program.

HELPFUL LINKS

FAQs

EANS Program

State Educational Agencies

Telement

telementtherapy.com

info@telementtherapy.com

(813) 395-9319

Last updated: February 18, 2021